THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTIE B.PRAKASH RAO
AND
THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

W.P.No. 18234 of 2006

ORDER: (per Hon'ble Sri Justice B.Prakash Rao)

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and also the learned Government Pleader for Services I and at their request the main writ petition itself is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

The only grievance of the petitioner in this writ petition is that the contesting respondent No.3 filed O.A.918 of 2006 under Section 19 of Administrative Tribunals Act and obtained interim order wherein the petitioner filed an application M.A.No.92472 of 2006 to implead himself as party respondent and also filed an application M.A.No.948 of 2006 seeking to vacate the ad interim orders, the same is still pending, however, in spite of pendency of the said application, the respondent- applicant has filed contempt application in C.A.258 of 2006 and the same is being proceed with.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances, we deem it proper, in the interest of justice, to direct the A.P. Administrative Tribunal to consider the applications filed by the petitioner to implead himself and to vacate the interim order granted in favour of the respondent – applicant and the counter affidavit filed by the Government, before passing final orders on the contempt application filed by the respondent – applicant.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs
